

Joe currently serves as the Evangelism Representative for the North Texas District of the Assemblies of God. He's the Evangelism Instructor at Christ for the Nations Bible Institute, and the Evangelism Director at Heartland World Ministries Church and Heartland School of Ministry, along side of Pastor/Evangelist Steve Hill. In addition, he's leading a nation-wide evangelism director's network called REACH America. He also authors the Acts 29 School of Evangelism, which is being used throughout America to equip, ignite, and mobilize the local church for the great commission.